Dear Friends,

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the Second Annual Davis Chinese Film Festival. The committee has selected a set of films that will serve to commemorate the 70th Anniversary of the End of World War II in Asia, the 150th Anniversary of Chinese Workers and the building of US Transcontinental Railroad.

I commend the Davis Chinese Film Festival and the Confucius Institute for their remarkable and successful free film screening last year. I am truly honored to be a part of events such as this one that promote diversity, cultural awareness, and history. I challenge the attendees to view history through a critical lens and learn about our diverse society as much as possible.

I thank all attendees for your presence, the Davis Chinese Film Festival and the Confucius Institute for their commitment to enhance and promote the Chinese culture in the U.S. I look forward to future collaborations.

Sincerely,
